In a recent address, Robt G Ingersoll said: "In 1860 all the railroads in the United States were worth $400,000,000; now they are worth a little less than $10,000,000,000.
 I want you to understand what these figures mean. For thirty years we spent on an average of $1,000,000 a day building railroads.
 I want you to think what that means. All that money had to be dug out of the ground. It had to be made by raising something or manufacturing something. We did not get it by writing essays on flowers or discussing the silver question. It had to be made with ax, the plow, the reaper, the mow, in every form of industry, all to produce these splendid results. We have got railroads enough now to make even tracks around the globe and enough left for side tracks."

Passengers destined to Cincinnati, Louisville, Cleveland, Columbus, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and the Atlantic seaboard from any of the western states can add greatly to the pleasures of the trip by going via the Missouri Pacific railway and Saint Louis.
 This is a very desirable route, and passengers thus ticketed can save considerable time, and have at their disposal, the finest of Pullman and reclining chair car service. All agents of connecting lines sell tickets via the Missouri Pacific railway and beyond Mississippi river gate way, and can furnish full information bearing on the excellent equipment of the "Old Reliable." For maps, time tables, illustrated and descriptive pamphlets, address H. C. Townsend, General Passenger Agent, St.
 Louis.

HOW TO PREVENT CROUP.

Some Reading That Will Prove Interesting to Young Mothers.
How to Guard Against the Disease.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it.
 The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given, all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by W. C. Gaston.

WHEN a man has reached the point where he is led to believe that he is good enough for eternal glory, he is then at the point beyond which there is no progress, no upward movement. The spiritual life-pulse is gone.
 All is dead within. There is nothing left but a moral carcass over which the demons of iniquity hold their festive riot. And if there is any work in which Satan is more actively engaged than any other it is the work of making men believe they are good at all. If there is any one thing succeeding better than any other in keeping men out of the church and away from the church, it is the thought that they are good enough where they are. If there is any one thing more successful than any other in restraining those within the church from doing better it is the thought that they are doing well enough. Pillowed couches and flowery beds of ease are not the way to heaven.—Centralia Guard.

THE Toledo Blade tells of a tramp who was given a pair of pantaloons by a woman whose husband had made these same pantaloons a depository for $200. The tramp walked a hundred miles before finding the treasure. He was honest. He wanted to return the money. He would not spend any portion of the money to buy a ticket to take him back to his honor. He walked the hundred miles back and returned every penny of the amount. What was the result? Honesty bath its reward. He was given steady employment by the man who owned the money, and the principle which made him return the money will lead him into an honorable and useful life.

The only reason every man who wears pants doesn't wear the BUCK-SKIN BREECHES is because he hasn't seen them. 'Tisn't reasonable to expect any man to wear common pants if he can get the best for the same price. Ask your dealer to show you a pair of Buckskins the next time you buy pants.

A SEAL recently caught in the river, Parker, by two fishermen, of New-buryport, Mass. was a day or so afterwards returned to the river, but it refused to be left behind, and followed the men back to the wharf, crying to be taken into the boat. Finding it impossible to force the seal to leave them, they made a little house for it on one of the wharves, and every day since it has gone in the water to get food, returning at night to be locked up in its new quarters.

Tea Becomes a Crop in Arkansas.

Burrell Bond, a negro and ex-slave, now a prosperous planter, brought 800 pounds of tea to Memphis and placed it on sale. The tea was grown by Bond on his plantation in the St. Francis basin, Arkansas.
 Two years ago Bond bought the seed in New Orleans and planted it.
 The crop last year was good, but this year the yield was fine. The tea was tested by local experts and pronounced to be of a good grade.
 Bond will engage extensively in its cultivation next year. He has made arrangements with a negro who can read to read to him several papers on tea culture. It is the first domestic tea raised in the State of Arkansas and the first ever put on the Memphis market.

The Historic Route.

The Nashville, Chattanooga & St.
 Louis railway, the model railroad of the South in equipment, roadway and service, is also the greatest in historical interest, more than fifty famous battlefields and five national cemeteries being located on the various lines of this system. This is the preferred route to Atlanta for the Cotton States and International exposition, open from September 18, to December 31, 1895, for which very low excursion rates have been made. Through sleeping car service from St. Louis to Atlanta via Evansville, Nashville and Chattanooga.
 This is the route of the famous "Dixie Flyer" through sleeping car line which runs the year round between Nashville and Jacksonville, Fla.

THE Unchained Poet of the Schell City News: A little corn on a maiden's toe grew, listen to her wail of toe, caused by the pinch of a too tight shoe, instead of a four, a number two, it grew and grew; listen to the wail of toe. As time went on, as time will do, listen to my wail of toe; the corn waxed red and the maiden blue, it was ten times worse than the grip, (kerchew) 'tis true, too true, listen to the wail of toe. She had a seat in the end of a pew, listen to the wail of toe; a big fat man with his seat in view, put his No. 10 on her Kangaroo. Oh, whew! Oh, whew! listen to my wail of toe.
